Director, Office of Legislative Liaison
Director, Public Affairs Office

FROM: Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT: Luncheon Briefings for The Brookings Institution
Public Policy Conferences for Corporate Executives
on Understanding Federal Government Operations, 1985-1986

1. Once again, The Brookings Institution has invited the Agency to participate in its Public Policy Conferences for Corporate Executives on Understanding Federal Government Operations. The six-day conferences for senior-level corporate executives are designed to provide an intensive overview of Washington policymaking. This memorandum requests that you and your Deputy serve as host at one or two of the 12 luncheon/briefings in 1985-1986 and that you identify middle-to-senior level representatives of your individual offices to participate as table hosts and discussants in the briefings. Dates for the 1985-1986 programs are attached.

2. The format will continue as in the past: Luncheon in the Executive Dining Room at 1200 hours followed by a briefing in the DCI Conference Room at 1300 hours concluding at 1400 hours. As host, you will conduct a 10 to 15 minute overview of the Agency and the Intelligence Community followed by a question and answer period in which the Agency discussants, selected for their Geographic and/or functional expertise, will participate by answering questions from the assembled group. Cost of the luncheons is borne by The Brookings Institution.

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I am writing to invite you to nominate senior officials in your agency to participate in the educational programs of the Brookings Institution during 1985-86. A brochure describing these programs is enclosed. The programs are based on Brookings' experience in leadership education developed in the past twenty-five years. They are designed specifically to meet the educational needs of members of the Senior Executive Service and of individuals holding positions of similar rank.

Our brochure provides information about specific programs, including dates, locations, and fees. Nominations can be made throughout the program year.

I look forward to the participation of your senior executives in these programs.

Sincerely yours,

B. K. MacLaury
President
